

Great Blue Heron

(Ardea herodias)

- The Great Blue Heron is the most common and largest of North American herons
- They live in both freshwater and saltwater habitats
- Great Blue Herons love to eat anything within striking distance like fish, amphibians, reptiles, small mammals, insects, and other birds

- Size: Large
- Color: Blue/gray and have a black stripe over their eye