

Bartlett Cove Interpretive Activities, Summer 2025

May 23 - September 1*

Fun, informative, and FREE!

Check the online calendar for details and current updates:

Enjoy programming at two locations:

National Park Visitor Center

Upstairs in the Glacier Bay Lodge

Info Desk Staffed Daily 11:00 am to 5:30 pm

Walk through museum-style natural history exhibits (open during the lodge's front desk hours: 6 am-11 pm), talk with a ranger, relax in a reading nook, and browse Alaska Geographic books and gifts for sale (card/smartphone tap to pay only).

Xunaa Shuká Hít (Huna Ancestors' House)

Along the shoreline near the Glacier Bay Lodge

*Open June 3 - August 30

Open Tuesday-Saturday 1:00 to 5:30 pm

Discover the beauty and significance of this building, a collaborative effort between the National Park Service and Hoonah Indian Association.

Visitor hours may be altered to accommodate special events and Tribal/NPS uses.

Special tribal programming or traditional demonstrations may be available on Sundays from 1-4 pm. Check the Glacier Bay Calendar for updates! (Scan QR code at top)

1:30 pm

Guided Walk: Forest Loop Trail

Location: Meet at Lodge Entryway

Daily | 90 minutes, one mile, easy.

Walk with a ranger to track the "footprints" left by a glacier and discover hidden stories of Glacier Bay's forests and shore. Note: a self-guiding walk is available at any time using the NPS App.

1:00 -
3:45 pm

Open House at Xunaa Shuká Hít

Location: Xunaa Shuká Hít

Tuesday - Saturday

Drop in to meet a tribal interpreter to learn more about Huna ƙingít life and their treasured Glacier Bay Homeland.

3:45 pm

Sanctuary for the Future

Location: Xunaa Shuká Hít

Tuesday - Saturday | 25 minutes

Watch a film showing how the Tribal House came to be through a unique partnership.

4:30 pm

Healing Across the Waters

Location: Xunaa Shuká Hít

Tuesday - Saturday | 40 minutes

Watch our award-winning film highlighting our collaborative partnership and continued healing journey.

6:00 pm

Ranger Evening Program: Glacier Bay Lodge Theater

Daily | 30 minutes

Join a park ranger for daily presentations in Bartlett Cove! Hear from a National Park Service Ranger at the Glacier Bay Lodge Theater (upstairs) for a deep dive into what makes Glacier Bay special. Programs begin at 6 pm, typically lasting about 30 minutes. Ranger will depart at 7:00 pm after the program, although the Glacier Bay Lodge front desk remains open 6 am - 11 pm. Program topics vary nightly: See weekly flyer or web calendar for program topics, scan QR code at top for website link.

