

Keiki Adventure

Pu'ukoholā Heiau National Historic Site

Petroglyph Puzzle

Before the Hawaiians had a written language, they would leave symbols on rocks called petroglyphs.

Today we still use symbols to communicate!

Draw lines from the modern and ancient symbols below to what you think they mean.

Throw away trash

Information

Canoe

Recycle

Turtle

Whale Watching

Fighting Men

Hiking Trail

Now it's your turn!

Draw your own symbols for any THREE:

Spear

Whale

Shark

Car

Family

--	--	--

The Flag of Hawai'i

(Ka Hae Hawai'i)

Look for a Hawaiian flag in the Park.

Where did you find it? _____

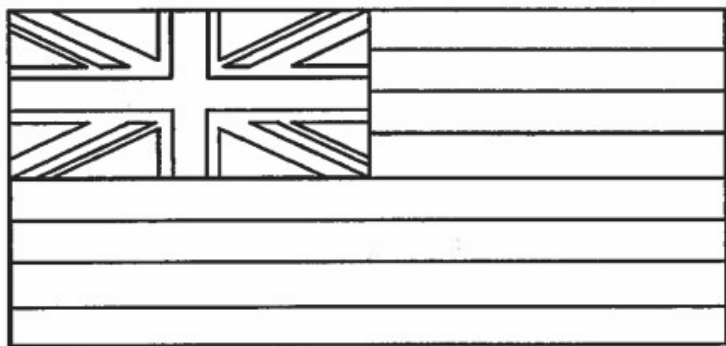

What colors are in the flag? 1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

This Hawaiian flag needs some color!

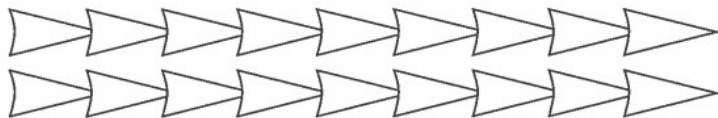

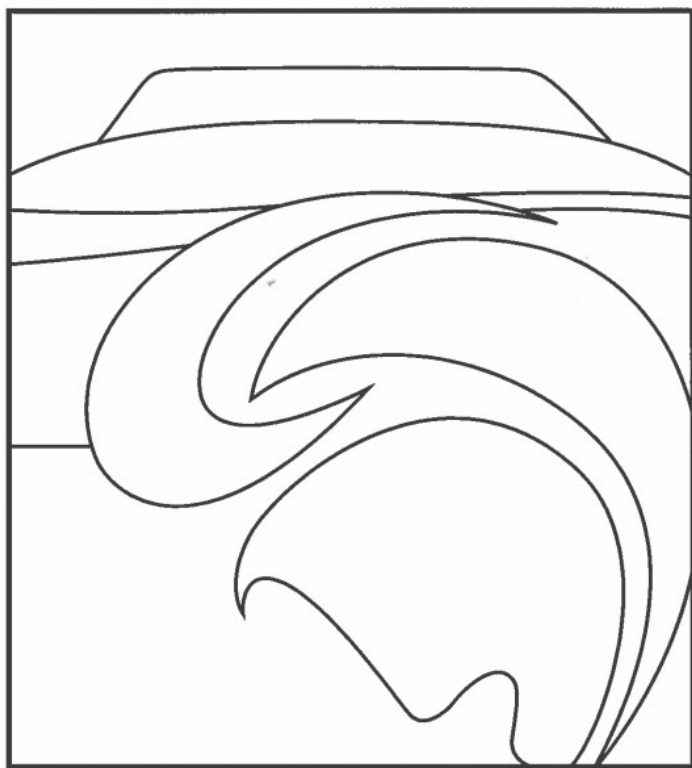

Color the Hawaiian flag so that it looks like the one that you found!

DID YOU KNOW?

King Kamehameha the Great had this flag designed for his Kingdom in 1816. This flag is still the official flag of the State of Hawai'i.

Coloring Page

Scavenger Hunt

As you explore the Park along the loop trail, you can have fun observing the things that live here.

See how many of these you can find in the Park!

Circle all that you see

Dolphin
(nai'a)

Owl
(pueo)

Mongoose
(manakuke)

Coconut Tree
(niu)

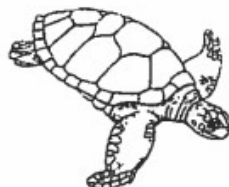

Crab
(pāpa'i)

Black-Tipped Reef Shark
(manō pā'ele)

Shells
(pūpū)

Sea Turtle
(honu)

Butterfly
(pulelehua)

Goat
(kao)

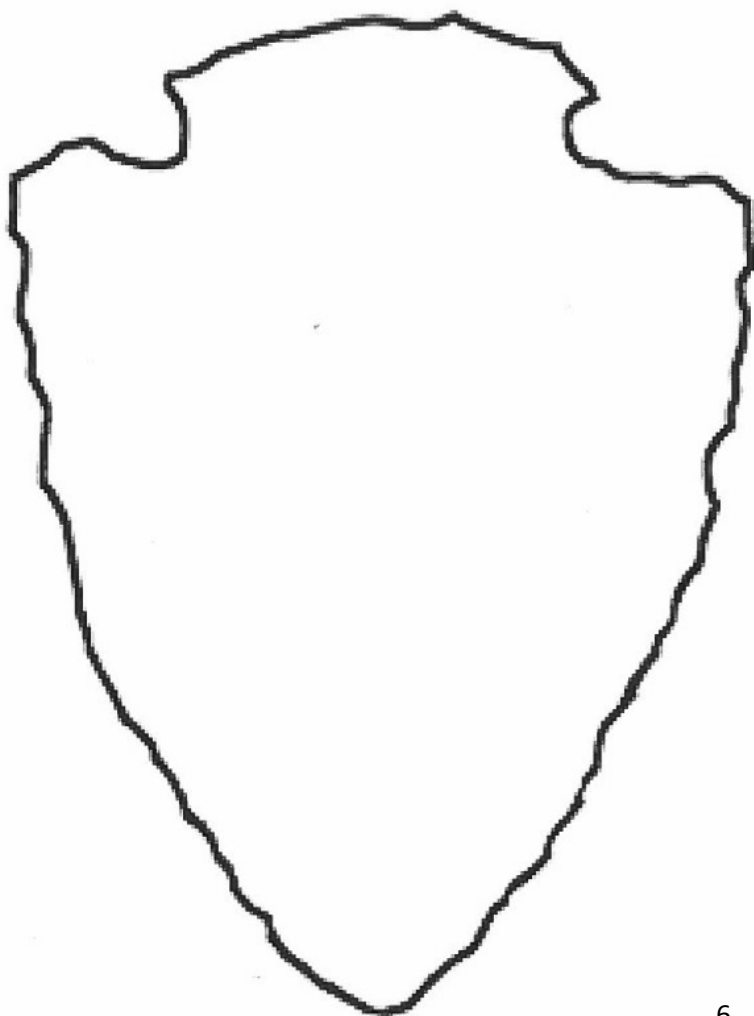

Bat
(‘Ōpe‘ape‘a)

Humpback Whale
(koholā)

Create Your Patch

Junior Ranger Pledge

"I pledge to help protect
Pu'ukoholā Heiau National Historic Site and to show respect to all historical and cultural places, so that others may enjoy these special places
in the future."

Junior Ranger Certificate

is hereby awarded to:

for the highest achievement in the dedication and protection of all national parks for future generations

Park Ranger

Date