KUPUNA RANGER

Aloha! Pu‘uhonua o Hōnaunau National Historical Park is a legendary place with deep significance to Hawaiian culture and history. Here, the royal grounds, the pu‘uhonua (place of refuge), and sacred temple sites have been preserved for this and future generations.

Kupuna is an elder, a grandparent, or a wise community member rich with life experience. Traditionally, kūpuna were teachers and caretakers of keiki (children), they were regarded with great respect.

Kūpuna rangers have the knowledge of how to preserve special places and not destroy them and they pledge to share this knowledge with others.

INSTRUCTIONS

Complete this entire booklet to earn a Kupuna Ranger Badge.

Bring the completed booklet to the visitor center by 4:00 PM any day.

Have fun! Mahalo for learning and sharing the Hawaiian culture!

‘ŌLELO HAWAI‘I

The Hawaiian alphabet has 13 letters; 5 vowels and 8 consonants: A E I O U H K L M N P W ʻ

A =“ah” E =“eh” I =“ee” O =“oh” U =“oo”

= ʻokina, or glottal stop. Creates a break in sound.

Ō = kahakō, or line over the vowel. Hold the sound under the line longer.

Practice saying the name of the park:

Pu‘uhonua o Hōnaunau

Poo-oo-ho-noo-ah o Hō-now-now

CANOE PLANTS

Early Polynesians migrated to Hawai‘i by canoe, they brought with them over 23 species of precious plants.

Niu, the coconut palm had over 50 uses! From it came food and water. It is called “the tree of life”.

Ipu, or Hawaiian gourds, were used to make containers, drums, rattles and head masks.

Noni, or Indian Mulberry, was used medicinally and the roots and bark made dyes for kapa.

Lauhala (hala leaves) were plaited into sails, mats, and containers. Pandanus seeds were used as brushes.
