Day One

Campsite: Hannah Run - backcountry

2.6 to 3.6 miles

Hike from parking area to Nicholson Hollow trailhead, up to 0.6 mile.

Hike up Nicholson Hollow Trail, 2 miles.

Turn right onto Hannah Run Trail and look for a place to camp in the next mile.

---

Day Two

Campsite: Hazel Mtn Trail - backcountry

2.7 to 3.7 miles

Continue hiking on Hannah Run Trail 1.5 to 2.5 miles (depending on campsite).

Turn right onto Catlett Mountain Trail and hike 1.2 miles, picking up water at the stream.

Turn right onto Hazel Mountain Trail and find a place to camp in the next 0.5 mile.

---

Day Three

Campsite: Nicholson Hollow Trail - backcountry

4.5 to 5 miles

Finish hiking Hazel Mountain Trail (up to 0.5 mile depending on campsite).

Turn right onto Hot Mountain-Short Mountain Trail, hiking 2.1 miles.

Turn left hiking downstream on Nicholson Hollow Trail 1.8 miles to the road.

Hike to your vehicle, up to 0.6 mile.

Notes

The Hughes River, which runs through Nicholson Hollow can run very high in the spring or after heavy rains (knee to waist high). The trail crosses the river several times, so be prepared. The plus side is the excellent swimming holes that exist even in drought.

While this is a popular place on the weekends, during the week you can often have this wilderness area to yourself.

While each day is planned to be short, there are many other trails to explore if you still have energy at the end of the day. Select a place to camp, store your food properly, then find a place to swim, or another trail to walk.
