Capt. A. K. Bush,

3rd promotion

Head-Quarters Post of Nashville,

Nashville, Tenn., Jan 17, 1865.

Gov. O. P. Morton

Indianapolis

Governor,

I take pleasure in recommending Capt [sic] A K Bush late of 4th Ind Battery for promotion. I have known Capt [sic] Bush for a long time and can testife [sic] to his high character as an officer and a gentleman and heartily unite with his friends in the army in according him great praise for gallantrie [sic] and general good conduct and thanks for the valuable service he has rendered. It was my good fortune to have the services of Capt [sic] Bush as a part of his Battery with my Brigade at the Battle of Stone [sic] River near Murfreesboro. The cool courage and consumate [sic] abilitie [sic] displayed by Capt [sic] Bush on that occasion gained my admiration. His services were of great value during that engagement.
