The 19th Regiment South Carolina Infantry was composed of ten companies, A to K, which were organized on various dates in November and December, 1861, for twelve months. The regiment was re-organized for the war in May, 1862, and temporarily consolidated with the 10th Regiment South Carolina Infantry about January 1, 1863, this regiment forming four companies of the consolidated organization but each company of the original regiments was mustered separately. The 19th and 10th Regiments South Carolina Infantry were again consolidated about April 10, 1865, and formed the South Carolina Battalion of Infantry (Walker's), the men of this regiment being finally paroled May 1, 1865, at Greensboro, N.C. as Companies C to F of that battalion.
