GARDINER COMMUNITY CHURCH RECORDS
1940s-1980s

CATALOG NUMBER: MSC 221

VOLUME: 0.25 LINEAR FEET

HISTORY

The Gardiner Community Church was established in 1903, under the leadership of Reverend Pritchard. Originally known as the Gardiner Union Church, funds were raised, and a building was constructed in 1905. According to Edna Lauer, Lawrence Link hauled the rock and supervised construction, while the stonemason was a Mr. Kurtz. A lady's group, known as the Gardiner Guild, was established to maintain the building. An addition, dedicated by Reverend Warren Ost, was dedicated on January 20, 1974.

DESCRIPTION

The collection consists of administrative records for the Gardiner Community Church in Gardiner, Montana. The records include membership and financial records as well as a history of the church and a few minutes of meetings.
