

Give Nature Some Space and Leave No Trace!

As a Zion Junior Ranger, it is your duty to practice and teach others about Leave No Trace. Practicing Leave No Trace means treating nature with respect. First, read the rules of Leave No Trace at the bottom of the page. Then, use a coin and flip it for each turn to play the game below.

Heads—  move one space. Tails—  move three spaces.

LEAVE NO TRACE Trail
START

You plan ahead and prepare for your trip by studying the rules and maps.
Move ahead 2 spaces!

You hike and camp on stable surfaces such as rock or dirt to prevent damage to the ground.
Move ahead 1 space!

You stop to photograph a bighorn sheep and get too close. You are lucky it didn't run at you!
Move back 2 spaces.

You cook with a backpacking stove so that you do not disturb the area with fire rings or burn scars.
Move ahead 3 spaces!

You didn't put your food in an animal resistant container. A mule deer gets into camp and eats your food!
Move back 5 spaces

You find mule deer antlers on the trail and after looking at them, you leave them just how you found them.
Move ahead 1 space!

You pack out everything you brought with you, including your trash and leftover food.
Move ahead 2 spaces!

You put your tent in a no camping area, instead of in a campground.
You smash grass and plants.
Move back 1 space.

When it's time to put the fire out, you dump lots of water on it, stir it with a shovel, and pour more water on it. You make sure it is COLD before leaving the campsite.
Move ahead 4 spaces!

You scratch your name into a rock wall and damage an important part of history.
Go back to Start.

Congratulations Junior Ranger!

By practicing Leave No Trace, you left Zion National Park beautiful. Everyone who visits after you will be able to experience the natural beauty and treasures the way you did. Thank you!
